OBLIGATIONS

Woodside Unlimited Membership Holders are reminded that as per the Woodside Membership Agreement (Article 3.01-G), payment of Annual Dues for the Membership Holder are compulsory each season. Principal or Senior Annual Dues are an annual requirement of a Membership Holder.

Exceptions

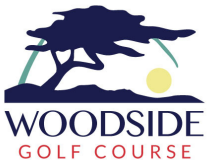

1) Permission to pay INACTIVE DUES in lieu of Principal or Senior Principal Dues. Should a Membership Holder have a valid medical condition that prevents them from golfing (doctor's note required), or be moving out of town (125 km or more from WoodsideGC) then the Woodside Membership Director may grant INACTIVE STATUS. Inactive Status comes at an annual fee of $425 and includes (5) - 18 hole rounds of golf that are transferable.

2) Permission to have a DESIGNATE pay and play on their Membership, A designate is a person who is willing to take over the commitment of the Membership's annual dues for the season. If a designate is found, then the Membership Holder transfers all of their Membership privileges and benefits to the designate for the current season.

Woodside Unlimited Membership Holders are also reminded that as per the Woodside Membership Agreement (Article 3.01-H), if a Membership Holder does not meet their annual dues obligations and their Membership becomes delinquent for a period greater than (24) months, the Membership will be revoked and immediately returned to Woodside Golf Course Inc. with no remuneration forwarded. To be clear, the Membership will forfeit to Woodside Golf Course Inc. and the holder of the Membership will receive no compensation and have no further privileges at Woodside Golf Course.
